DEPARTMENT HEADS REPORT

City Clerk/Treasurer, Amy Guenther

- Council has been provided with occupational, insurance and property tax rates for the different cities in Kenton County. The City has one of the lower gross receipts, property and insurance premium tax rates in Kenton County. The property tax rate history graph showed that the City's property tax rate has decreased over the last ten years. The City does not levy tangible personal property taxes.

Programs and Communications Coordinator, Joe Christofield

- Beechwood School's annual Veterans Day parade will take place tomorrow morning at 9:30. The parade route starts at Beechwood Swim Club and goes along Beechwood Road and ends at Dixie Highway. The veterans will see Beechwood School students with their signs and decorations in red, white, and blue.
- The Fort Mitchell Night at the Northern Kentucky Ice Center will be held on Wednesday, November 26 (the night before Thanksgiving) from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m. Residents can show their ID's and get in for free on that night.
- The annual Christmas Tree Lighting is on Sunday, December 7, from 5:30 – 7:30 pm at Iris Road Park. The event will include photos with Santa, carriage rides, a Tank bus, hot chocolate, and cookies. Fort Mitchell Neighbors Magazine will be there with face painting.
- The City of Fort Mitchell is collecting canned goods this Holiday Season to help local families in need. Donations will be accepted now through December 1 at the Fort Mitchell City Building, 2355 Dixie Highway, Monday through Friday, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Together, we can make the season brighter for families.
- Some streets are participating in "inflatable wars", and 15-25 streets are designated with different themes. The City is not affiliated with this event but helps advertise it.

Public Works Director, Nick Tewes

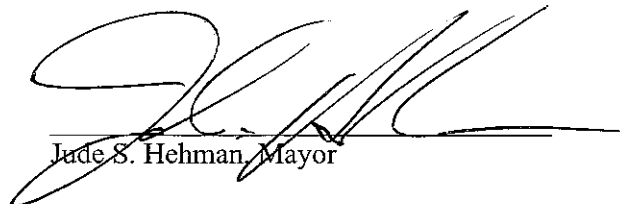

- The fence that was torn down for the construction of the public works building has been reconstructed and stained. Inside.
- The public works garage floor was sealed.
- The Chelsea reconstruction project is about 85% complete and should be completed in a few weeks.

Police Chief, Rob Nader

- The City's new police applicant will be sworn in by Mayor Hehman on Monday, November 17 and will start at the Kentucky Police Academy in December. The Police Department will get him back in June and he will go through 16-20 weeks of training here.
- The police department has ordered two new cars, which will arrive in 6-8 weeks.
- The department has two spare cars, because cruisers run 12 hours a day and can break down.
- Residents should lock their cars to prevent break-ins.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. Deatherage made a motion to adjourn the City Council meeting at 7:05 p.m. Mr. Arlinghaus seconded the motion. Mayor Hehman called for a voice vote. The motion passed unanimously.
